

Continuing Education

Statement of Purpose

Continuing Education extends the services of the University to the community by providing quality non-credit programming, conferences and training for business and industry, and by coordinating travel courses offered to students and the community.